Scheele Resigns U.S. Post

...President Accepts

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Friday night accepted "with deepest regret" the resignation of Dr. Leonard A. Scheele as surgeon general of the United States Public Health Service.

In submitting his resignation, effective Aug. 1, Scheele wrote the President that he did so "in the interests of providing more property for the Dr. Scheele family."

Scheele, a native of Fort Wayne, Ind., was sworn in on April 16 this year for his third four-year term as head of the Public Health Service.

The President, in accepting paid this tribute to Scheele in a letter to him:

"I should like to extend to you my personal thanks, and, on behalf of the people of the United States, sincere appreciation and gratitude for your outstanding contribution to the cause of better health during your long years of service."

"As surgeon general you played a most important part in the national and international drive for better health that has characterized your times. Your leadership and your generous counsel, always extended in the most co-operative and harmonious manner, have been invaluable to me and to the secretary of health, education and welfare."

In his letter of resignation, Scheele did not mention what his plans are for the future.

However, in New York, the Warner-Lambert Pharmaceutical Co. announced that Scheele will assume the presidency of its Warner-Chilcott Laboratories, Inc. Warner-Lambert is an international drug firm and the laboratories are in Morris Plains, N.J.

He figured last year in the controversy stirred up at the time of the beginning of the Salk polio vaccine inoculation program.

At that time the government came in for some criticism because of the way the program was at the outset.

In his letter, Eisenhower made no mention of the Salk program.

State Democratic Contests Shape Up At North Platte; Kerr Will Strike Keynote

By BASIL C. RAFFETY

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (AP)—Contests were shaping up Friday for top Nebraska Democratic party jobs to be voted on at Saturday's state convention here, but they bore little resemblance to the "Regular vs. New Life" clash of 1952.

Supporters of the incumbent party officers see in their opposition a revival of the "New Life" movement to gain control of the party. But the lines of cleavage between the two groups seem to have dimmed.

Some of the avowed New Lifers of 1952 were supporting incumbents; the opposition candidates were running independently of each other and there was no visible pre-convention effort to develop an "opposition slate."

National Committeeman Bernard J. Boyle of Omaha, who headed the regulars in their successful effort to retain the top offices four years ago, had no announced opposition.

Stay At Home

Frank Morrison of Lincoln—then of McCook—who opposed Boyle in 1952, said he wasn't sure he would even be at the convention Saturday.

But he praised Boyle's selection of Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okl.) to keynote the convention, terming Kerr "one of the ablest speakers in the Senate. I'm glad he's coming out."

Boyle noted that the Democratic National executive committee had endorsed Kerr for keynoter at the National Convention and said it was "very gracious" of Kerr to accept the Nebraska invitation.

He added that the Kerr-Kefauver primary contest in 1952, in which he and Morrison were in opposite camps had been forgotten and there was no friction. Morrison will be Sen. Estes Kefauver's campaign in Nebraska in both 1952 and 1956.

Principal interest focused on the state's chairmanship contest between Willard Townsend of Lincoln, acting state chairman since Lawrence Brock of Wakefield stepped out to run for Congress, and Wade Ellis of Alliance.

Opponents of Ellis have sought to hang the "New Life" tag on him, but Ellis and some of his principal supporters insist that he isn't a New Lifer.

"I don't feel that I belong to any faction," Ellis said. "My whole desire is to see if I can solidify the party."

He termed the New Life tag "a misnomer, due to publicity." Instead, the Ellis forces point to the fact he is from western Nebraska, which hasn't had a party chief in many years.

Townsend claims the support of his own Lincoln delegation, but the other big delegation, Omaha's, is not committed.

Livers, 46, suffered a cut on the arm and possible rib fractures. His wife, Ramona, 43, suffered severe lacerations on the head and other undetermined injuries. Both were reported in fairly-good condition at Bryan Memorial Hospital.

The truck driver, Darmand E. Fuller, 28, of New Market, Ia., was not injured.

Waltman said Livers was driving east on U.S. 6, with his wife and Mrs. Harris, passengers in the front seat.

Witnesses said blowing dust probably obscured Livers vision and the car collided with a east-bound Watson Bros. transport semi truck and trailer one and a half miles east of the Havelock overpass.

Milton Bell of the Lincoln Air Force Base, who was driving westbound at the time of the collision, told the trooper that he stopped his car and found the three "all slumped over and one of the women crying 'help me, help me.'

He told Waltman that the Livers car was traveling approximately 40 miles per hour. The tachometer on the truck, showed it to be going eight to ten miles an hour at the anticipated farm planks.

Former State Chairman William Meier of Minden was a named chairman of this committee in advance of the convention so he could receive suggestions and make rough drafts of planks for the committee to consider in the limited time they will have.

Townsend announced the chairman of three other key committees. They are: Credentials, Fred Wallace, Gibbons; Permanent Organization, W. B. Quigley, Valentine; Rules and Order of Business, Joseph T. Votava, Omaha.

46 40-Acre Additions

The Woods brothers first built Sheridan Boulevard from South to College View, then added Woodscrest, Van Dorn Park, Axtell Heights, Woodshire, Country Club addition and Country Club Manor. Altogether they planned and developed 46 additions to Lincoln, each an area of about 40 acres.

When difficulties developed securing telephone service he and his brothers George and Frank H. founded the Lincoln Automatic Telephone Co., which later became the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co.

When transportation problems also developed they organized the White Line Traction Co., later merged into the Lincoln Traction Co. They even went into the nursery business to provide trees for streets they were laying out.

Mr. Woods and his brother George planned the area where the Lincoln Country Club is now located. They developed it for a country club and then took the old country club near Gooch's Mill in exchange as part payment for the new country club area.

authorization of about $3,800,000.

The Senate action on the bill, in two lengthy voting sessions both running into the night hours, represented a considerable victory for President Eisenhower.

All efforts on the Senate floor to cut the bill below the $4,502,000 figure approved by the Foreign Relations Committee or to put in other amendments unacceptable to the administration were beaten. Instead, the Senate added $6 million to the measure.

It was a coalition of Eisenhower Republicans with much help from Democrats on most roll calls which beat back the efforts to slash the bill and otherwise alter it against the wishes of the President.

Marilyn And Miller Wed

...SLIP AWAY TO WHITE PLAINS, N.Y.

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP)—America's latest lovers, actress Marilyn Monroe and playwright Arthur Miller, slipped quietly into city hall Friday night and were married by City Judge Seymour Robinowitz.

Dogged by reporters and photographers for a week, the couple nevertheless managed to get away by themselves for the expected but nonetheless surprise ceremony.

Hours earlier Miller had said the world would know about their wedding — after it happened. But there was no indication it would take place the same day.

Robinowitz married the blond pinup queen and the celebrated author at 7:21 p.m. in the City Courtroom in City Hall. Their attendants were Miller's cousins, Morton A. Miller and Florence J. Miller.

Milton Greene, a business associate of Miss Monroe, also was present at the ceremony.

Marilyn, known best to the public for her daringly low-cut gowns, was wed in simple attire — a sweater and skirt and a cardigan sweater.

Miller was tieless in a blue linen suit.

As Robinowitz performed the single ring ceremony, Miller mumbled something to the effect that the ring would be replaced later — indicating apparently he had borrowed it for the occasion.

Both answered the questions he put to them in the civil ceremony "very seriously," the judge said later. Both, he added, looked tired but very happy.

Miller also said something about how glad he was to have been able to arrange the wedding without the benefit of photographers.

It had been a hectic day indeed for the actress and her Pulitzer prize-winning playwright beau, whose romance blossomed into marriage in a relatively brief period of time.

The day was marred by an auto accident in Connecticut that killed a French woman magazine writer among the many newsmen who had been dogging their footsteps.

Hit Areas Extended

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower extended his disaster declaration for storm-stricken areas of Ohio to include sections damaged June 23 and 24 by cyclonic winds and torrential rains.

He said he hoped the delegates would be ready to reconvene at 1 p.m. for committee reports and election of officers.

Sen. Kerr's keynote speech is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

Thunderstorm Activity Brings East A Drink

Thunderstorms, which were predicted in severe weather warnings, brought little rain, but blew dust and spread lightning over the eastern portion of the state during severe wind and thunderstorm that was 260 miles long and 30 miles wide late Friday.

Lancaster County was plagued with an electrical storm preceded by high winds and blowing dust.

Denton had a severe thunderstorm with high winds and about 30 of an inch of rain. Pleasant Dale also reported rain and numerous lightning flashes.

Waverly reported an electrical storm and a hard downpour of rain.

Malcolm had a dust storm and light rain and Raymond reported a small amount of precipitation.

Lincoln Gets .50

The temperature at Lincoln dropped from a high of 92 Friday to 65 as the thunderstorms hit. Lincoln had an unofficial .50 of an inch of rain.

The mercury plummeted 22 degrees — 85 to 63 — from 9:30 to 10:30 p.m. in Lincoln.

At Lincoln gusts up to 65 m.p.h. were reported by the CAA and the rainstorm was preceded by blowing dust.

Funnel Touches

The Omaha Weather Bureau said it had received a report of a funnel cloud sighted in the Bellwood area which apparently touched the ground. There was no mention of damage.

The Douglas County Hospital in Omaha was without power for 36 minutes Friday night when lightning or high winds caused a line failure. Doctors and attendants worked with flashlights during the period of darkness and said everything went smoothly until power was resumed through a switcher on lines.

Lightning struck Western Hills School during the Omaha storm but little damage was reported.

Car-Truck Smashup In Dust Kills Woman

... Mrs. Mary Harris, Ashland, Dies

By AL EDEE

Star Staff Writer

Blowing, blinding dust on U.S. 6 brought death to 73-year-old Mrs. Mary Harris of Ashland Friday night. She was the victim of a car-truck collision.

The Dallas Livers' of Ashland, relatives of Mrs. Harris, suffered injuries in the collision.

Mrs. Harris died enroute to Bryan Memorial Hospital. Safety Patrolman Gib Waltman said the woman's pulse was weak but going when he felt it at the scene of the accident.

Livers, 46, suffered a cut on the arm and possible rib fractures. His wife, Ramona, 43, suffered severe lacerations on the head and other undetermined injuries. Both were reported in fair-to-good condition at Bryan Memorial Hospital.

The truck driver, Darmand E. Fuller, 28, of New Market, Ia., was not injured.

Waltman said Livers was driving east on U.S. 6, with his wife and Mrs. Harris, passengers in the front seat.

Witnesses said blowing dust probably obscured Livers vision and the car collided with a east-bound Watson Bros. transport semi truck and trailer one and a half miles east of the Havelock overpass.

Milton Bell of the Lincoln Air Force Base, who was driving westbound at the time of the collision, told the trooper that he stopped his car and found the three "all slumped over and one of the women crying 'help me, help me.'

He told Waltman that the Livers car was traveling approximately 40 miles per hour. The tachometer on the truck, showed it to be going eight to ten miles an hour at the time.

Livers told Waltman in the hospital that he was following about a block behind the truck when all of a sudden blowing dirt swallowed up the truck. He related that he slowed down and hit the truck and dirt at the same time.

Waltman said the truck driver had also slowed down because of the blowing dirt.

Surviving are five sisters, Mrs. Josephine Gross, Mrs. Mary Murphy, Mrs. Christine Wolf, Mrs. Lena Porich, and Mrs. Jennie O'Donnell, all of Philadelphia, Pa.; one brother, Charles F. Shire of Lincoln; and an uncle, Charles Shire of San Jose, Calif.

His duties until the last three weeks.

Born in Philadelphia, Mr. Shire came to Lincoln in 1931, when he became an employee of the Cornhusker Hotel. He had been resident manager for five years.

He was president of the Nebraska Hotel Association the past year, a member of the South Street Temple and the Optimists Club. He was a veteran of World War I.

Huge Highway Bill Is Signed

... Work For 630,000 Persons Foreseen

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, described as "highly pleased," signed Friday the 33-billion-dollar highway construction bill.

Within minutes after Eisenhower's signature put in motion the government's biggest peacetime spending program, Secretary of Commerce Weeks released funds to get some of the construction under way.

He predicted that thousands of lives would be saved by safer roads, that traffic jams would be greatly eased, and the nation's economy spurred to new peaks of business activity and employment.

The total federal money available for Nebraska is $98.2 million for the next three-year period. In the breakdown, $16.4 million will go for primary road construction; $11.6 for secondary roads, and $2.8 for urban construction.

State Engineer L. N. Ress said earlier that Nebraska will need about $2.5 million a year for the three years for matching purposes.

Recent indications have been that a ton-mile tax on trucks will be proposed for additional highway user funds along with the possibility of increasing gasoline taxes by another cent.

It is estimated that when the program gets fully under way, up to 630,000 persons in the U.S. will be working on the roads during summer peak periods, with hundreds of thousands of others laboring to contribute materials and equipment.

Many New Jobs

Weeks also said many jobs will be created in new businesses that will spring up along the routes, such as motels, restaurants, gas stations and gift shops.

Some businesses along existing routes are expected to be hurt because the Bureau of Public Roads said there will be "substantial" relocation of highways. But the bureau said "the program won't tear up existing business any more than can be helped."

Weeks apportioned 1/4 billion dollars to the 48 states, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Puerto Rico

Want Recognition

He again emphasized the union contention that the only aim of the strike is to get union recognition. If the companies would recognize the Teamsters Local 659, Isbell said, the men would go back to work immediately.

Isbell said the union also believes the companies involved have engaged in "unfair labor practices," but he declined to give examples at the present time.

R. E. Eichelberger, manager of Reimers-Kaufman and Ready Mixed

Companies, had said earlier this week that the union claim that it represented the strikers "is not borne out by the facts."

New Men Non-Union

Isbell said such a vote should have been taken before the strike began since now many non-union workers have been hired. Management officials, he said, will seek to have these newly-hired men vote in such an election.

Calling for such a vote after a strike has begun, Isbell added, was condemned by Eisenhower in his 1954 State of the Union message. Isbell said such petitions are "intended to destroy labor unions."

Isbell said he contacted the designated management spokesman, Eugene H. Tallman, one week prior to the strike and suggested he verify labor membership records with the company's payroll records.

Tallman refused and referred him to an attorney who also refused, Isbell said.

The labor spokesman said he has also offered to let Mayor Clark Jeary choose someone to verify the validity of the union's membership claims if the company will permit.

Huge Highway Bill Is Signed

... Work For 630,000 Persons Foreseen

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, described as "highly pleased," signed Friday the 33-billion-dollar highway construction bill.

Within minutes after Eisenhower's signature put in motion the government's biggest peacetime spending program Secretary of Commerce Weeks released funds to get some of the construction under way.

He predicted that thousands of lives would be saved by safer roads, that traffic jams would be greatly eased, and the nation's economy spurred to new peaks of business activity and employment.

The total federal monies available for Nebraska is $98.2 million for the next three-year period. In the breakdown, $16.4 million will go for primary road construction; $11.6 for secondary roads, and $2.8 for urban construction.

State Engineer L. N. Ress said earlier that Nebraska will need about $2.5 million a year for the three years for matching purposes.

Recent indications have been that a ton-mile tax on trucks will be proposed for additional highway user funds along with the possibility of increasing gasoline taxes by another cent.

It is estimated that when the program gets fully under way, up to 630,000 persons in the U.S. will be working on the roads during summer peak periods, with hundreds of thousands of others laboring to contribute materials and equipment.

Many New Jobs
Weeks also said many jobs will be created in new businesses that will spring up along the routes, such as motels, restaurants, gas stations and gift shops.

Some businesses along existing routes are expected to be hurt because the Bureau of Public Roads said there will be "substantial" relocation of highways. But the bureau said "the program won't tear up existing business any more than can be helped."

Weeks apportioned 1 1/4 billion dollars to the 48 states, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Alaska for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Every State Linked

Of the total apportioned, a billion dollars will be used to begin construction on a 41,000-mile system of superhighways linking every state with controlled access roads, most of them four lanes or more.

The remainder of the money will go to the states for building primary, secondary and urban roads.

Weeks said he expects some of the projects to be financed by new funds will be under construction within 60 or 90 days.

New taxes to bankroll the program will take effect Sunday. Chief of these is a one-cent increase on the federal gasoline tax, bringing it to three cents a gallon.

Maj. John Svarny Retires; Honored At Base Parade

Major John Svarny was honored at a formal retreat ceremony at the Lincoln Air Force Base Friday.

Maj. Svarny, Commander of the 818th Headquarters Squadron, is retiring from military service after 32 years.

Approximately 500 men marched in the parade in honor of Maj. Svarny.

Maj. and Mrs. Svarny plan to spend the next months touring the United States before selecting a place to settle down.

The Svarnys had resided at 103 No. 32nd.

Polish Red Army Mop Up Diehards

Gunfire Crackles In Revolt City; Iron Curtain May Be Closing

BERLIN (AP) — Gunfire was reported crackling through the afternoon Friday in the Polish bread rebellion city of Poznan. It apparently was from a Red Polish army effort to mop up diehard snipers.

A slowdown of communications under martial law all but sealed off the big industrial city where possibly 100 died in the outbreak Thursday against poor living conditions.

There were indications that the Iron Curtain may be slamming down again all along the Soviet satellite frontiers as the result of the Poznan revolt.

Telephone communication from Stockholm to the Sovietized Baltic states—Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia—was suddenly cut off Friday night after a Moscow operator broke into a conversation. The Swedish telephone company said it was told there was a "technical breakdown."

The West Berlin newspaper Telegraf—the first here to report the Poznan outbreak Thursday—said Friday night noise of fighting was still being heard in Poznan in the aftermath.

Telegraf said it was doubted, however, that the insufficiently armed rebels can hold out much longer against the military might consisting of tank and infantry units."

Rough Handling

It claimed several Communist officials were "literally torn apart" by angry demonstrators Thursday.

Telegraf quoted a foreign businessman as saying troop reinforcements were being brought in when he left the Polish city late Thursday night.

It said the businessman met about 70 tanks and two battalions of motorized troops headed for Poznan.

The Polish Red regime sought to pacify the rebels Friday night in a broadcast speech by Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz. He promised the Poznan Poles the better life they demanded and asked them to support his authority. He also threatened all who continue rebellious.

Rias, the official U.S. government radio station in West Berlin, said Friday night the Central Committee of the Polish Communist party held an emergency session in Warsaw on the eve of the strike to discuss the demands of discontented Poznan workers.

The radio said the committee was aware of strike plans and decided to grant some improvements but the action came too late to prevent the strike and revolt at Poznan.

The West German newspaper Frankfurter Rundschau reported that East Germany's Communist regime has taken new precautions to prevent a repetition of the 1953 German uprisings.

The newspaper said armed Communist "fighting groups" of workers in state-owned industries have been placed on an alert.

Omaha Boys Crash Third Stolen Car

OMAHA (AP) — A high speed chase with gunfire during a lightning and wind storm ended Friday night with two Omaha youth going to a hospital after they wrecked a stolen car in a spectacular crash.

The youths were identified as Jim Dooley, 14, who suffered back and hip injuries, and Robert Allgaier, 14, who hurt a foot. Sheriff's deputies said the youths admitted stealing three cars during the afternoon and evening.

They wrecked the third car after hurtling across an intersection and shearing off a power pole. Dooley was thrown out of the car and against a fence, feet up.

Bridge Fall Kills Cotesfield Man

FULLERTON, Neb. (AP) — Don Weaver, 20, Cotesfield, Neb., died in a hospital here Friday night after falling from a bridge across the Loup River on Highway 14.

He was one of a crew working on the bridge during the evening shift. His neck was broken. Officials said he may have suffered a heart attack before he fell.

IKE WILL DEPART TODAY

... For Gettysburg

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will drive up to Gettysburg Saturday morning for at least two weeks of convalescence.

This was announced by Press Secretary James C. Hagerty who, however, still was shedding no new light on the President's future political plans.

Hagerty said Eisenhower would go direct from Walter Reed Hospital to his Pennsylvania farm home, without any intermediate stop at the White House.

The hour for leaving was set at 8:30 a.m.

Hagerty said there were no plans for the President to make any statement from the hospital steps.

He also told reporters that the President's doctors had no plans for a news conference Saturday before he checks out. As to whether they eventually will meet with newsmen, Hagerty said he could not answer that.

One News Conference

So far the President's doctors have held only one news conference since he was taken to the hospital June 8. That was a few hours after he underwent surgery in the early hours of the next day, for relief of a partial intestinal blockage.

At that time, Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, commandant of Walter Reed and the surgeon who performed the operation, said he saw no reason why Eisenhower could not stay in the presidential race.

Dr. Heaton also said in effect that he looked for no recurrence of the President's trouble—ileitis, or inflammation of the small intestine. Since then a controversy has arisen over Dr. Heaton's view on recurrence and certain medical literature holding that ileitis does recur frequently.

City Building Hits $1,693,000 During June

June construction costs hit a total of $1,693,000 for the record high for 1956 to date.

Despite this, however, the current year remains well behind the mark set in 1955. For 1956 to date, total estimated costs for building permit purposes stand at $7,278,383 as compared to $11,647,907 at the same time last year.

In June of 1955, total costs for the month were $2,017,172.

Homes Down

New home construction this year shows a marked decline from the record of 1955. For the current year to date permits have been issued for 504 new homes to cost $4,253,673.

At the same time last year, such permits numbered 1,043 and costs were $7,510,978.

During June, 1956, 73 new home permits were issued with costs at $635,030.

The only other major permits for the month were the new Security Mutual Life Insurance Co. office building at 220 No. 15th and the new $150,000 Safeway grocery store at 4701 O. Security Mutual will construct a three-story building with an estimated cost of $705,000.

6 Cases Set For U.S. Court Trial

Five civil and one condemnation case have been set for U.S. District Court jury trial beginning July 9.

Judge John W. Delehardt has set the cases for trial in this order:

1. Robert M. Flavin et al. vs. The Chicago Tribune Co. et al. and Island.

2. Robert H. Ammen et al. vs. U.S.

3. Mary Louise Dye vs. Harold Dunn et al.

4. Eugene Johnson et al. vs. William W. Eichler et al.

5. U.S. vs. 12.44 Acres (Furnas County) a condemnation action.

6. Jack R. Geller vs. Fred Wolf et al.

Daily Reporter Will Publish City Notices

City legal notices will be published in the future as an extra page in the Daily Reporter, city officials said Friday.

The Reporter carries statistical information on matters of public record and is published daily. The city will print its legal notices on its own duplicator and the sheets will be inserted in the regular copies of the Reporter.

Arrangements for paying for this service, said Mayor Clark Jeary, have not yet been fully worked out.

City legal notices were previously published in The Lincoln Star and The Lincoln Journal. The newspapers' publishers, however, served notice some time ago that the publications could no longer be accepted after July 1 at the rate of 25 cents a square.

Reporters at Tuesday's special election defeated an amendment to the city charter which would have eliminated the requirements for some publications and raised the rate on others from 25 to 75 cents a square.

It had been pointed out that 25 cents a square did not even pay for the paper on which the legal were printed.

Daughter Of Wealthy Missourian Is Slain

14-Year-Old Found On Patio Of Home Brutally Stabbed

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — The pretty, 14-year-old daughter of a wealthy Springfield businessman was found brutally stabbed to death Friday on the sun-lit patio of her home.

Police said Carol Elaine Drennon, a high school sophomore, had been stabbed 30 times. The patio was splattered with blood, and splotches led back to the fashionable, three-bedroom home, but no stains were found inside. There was no trace of the murder weapon.

Clues hunt, fruitless so far. An automobile reportedly abandoned near the scene proved to belong to a member of the family. Police were checking reports that two boys were seen near the car in the morning.

There was no indication of the motive.

No Commotion

Carol had been alone in the house during most of the forenoon and neighbors said they had heard no commotion.

Drennon, owner of a heavy equipment company, was near collapse Friday night and placed under a doctor's care. The mother was flying home from North Carolina, where she had been attending a Baptist camp.

Carol's brother is the couple's only other child.

Steelmen Walkout At Hand

... Talks Still Bogged

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's steel crisis rushed toward a climax Friday night. Dimming fires of the country's great steel furnaces reflected the equally dimming hope of a settlement before Saturday's midnight strike deadline.

Mrs. Finley suffered scalp cuts and bruises and was listed in fair condition at a local hospital. She was alone in her southbound car, the Safety Patrol reported.

Leitner's wife, Leona, suffered a fractured left arm and a 9-year-old son, Donald, suffered a fractured right wrist. Both were reported in good condition.

Other Leitner children in the car were Dean, 13; Patricia, 16 mos.; and Norma, 6. They suffered only minor cuts and bruises and were not hospitalized. The Leitner car was eastbound at the time of the collision, the Safety Patrol said.

Top executives of the 12 major steel companies late Friday night rejected an invitation to confer personally with David J. McDonald, the steel workers union president.

And the government again announced it wasn't intervening in the dispute for the moment.

Ike Approves Russian Relations Policy Aimed At Tearing Down Iron Curtain

Decision Comes After Long Debate

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower Friday approved a United States policy on relations with Russia which is designed to tear down the Soviet Iron Curtain.

The presidential decision came after six months of debate within the administration on how "liberal" or how "tough" the United States should be in exchanging visitors with Russia, swapping ideas and the like.

Under the Khrushchev-Bulgarian regime the Soviets have been increasingly aggressive in sending cultural, agricultural, engineering and other delegations into Western countries. They have also relaxed in limited measure their regulations on admitting Western visitors to Russia.

In main outline the policy which Eisenhower approved is the same as that which the United States, Britain and France tried to get Russia to accept at a foreign ministers meeting at Geneva last October-November.

Open Up

The purpose of the policy is to get the Soviet government to open up its vast territories and populations increasingly to Western ideas, news, air transportation and visits. The over-all effect, if the policy is successful, would be to put an end to the Iron Curtain which for many years has sealed off great sections of Soviet territory to Western eyes and virtually the whole Soviet population to Western influences.

One immediately practical result, officials said, would be to permit the United States to take the initiative in proposing actions which, in this field, the United States would like to have Russia take. For several months the initiative and propaganda advantage which goes with it has been in the hands of the Russians.

One outstanding example is that the Russians took the lead in proposing the current visit of Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, to the Soviet Union. Since this will lead to a reciprocal invitation to a Soviet officer to visit the United States, the United States might have gotten credit without any loss to its own interests, for proposing this exchange first. Under the new policy such initiatives may now be taken by the American government.

Endorsed

President press secretary James C. Hagerty announced that Eisenhower has endorsed a recommendation of the National Security Council on the subject. This called for the United States to try anew to set the exchange of information and ideas into motion, as proposed by Western nations at Geneva.

Hagerty summoned reporters to his office late Friday to read the announcement, which concluded with this sentence:

"Although this program was unacceptable to the Soviet government at that time (October 1955), the President believes such a program, if carried out in good faith and with true reciprocity, may now contribute to the better understanding of the peoples of the world that must be the foundation of peace."

Censorship

The 17-point proposal promulgated by the Allied Powers called for progressive elimination of censorship, the opening of information centers in countries where they do not now exist, and exchanges of books, newspapers, films and exhibitions.

Hagerty said he did not know whether the announcement indicated that this country has reason to believe Russia may now be more receptive.

Nor would he say whether any particular event or Soviet gesture had prompted the announcement.

State Pen Guard Files Bankruptcy Petition

Herbert M. Eggert, State Penitentiary guard of 4027 St. Paul, has filed in Federal Court a voluntary bankruptcy schedule listing debts totalling $3,719.07, including $19 in taxes; $100 as rent; $601.14 as secured claims, and $2,998.93 as unsecured claims.

Principal unsecured claims of the 39 listed include Dr. Ira L. Vorhes, $250; F. W. Wilson Sales, $194.67; Carroll Isaacs, Una-dilla, $330; and First National Bank, Una-dilla, $182.

A similar schedule was filed by his wife, Sarah Elizabeth Eggert. Eggert listed assets of $506.78, of which $500 are claimed exempt.

Magazine Picture Is 'Prejudicial'

... State High Court

The admission of magazine pictures as evidence in a Burt County land condemnation suit constituted "prejudicial error," the State Supreme Court held Friday.

The case was remanded back to the original court for re-trial.

The original action was brought by Virgil and Lauren Lane against the Burt County Public Power District, which had sought easement and right-of-way on the border of land owned by the Lanes for a power transmission line.

The Lanes were awarded $1 as damages by appraisers, and the Lanes appealed. A jury awarded them $3,800.

Dead Cattle

During the course of the trial in 1952, the attorneys for the Lanes introduced as evidence a two-page pictorial spread from a magazine which showed a number of cattle sprawled dead along a fence line.

The caption explained that the cattle were electrocuted near San Antonio, Tex., when a power line snapped and fell on a pasture fence. The caption said several cattle were lost.

The Supreme Court said the admission of the exhibit was a "flagrant prejudicial error which requires reversal of the judgment rendered on the verdict and remand of the cause for new trial."

Other Supreme Court decisions Friday:

Lancaster County: Grace M. Hauff vs. Katherine Kinnard, executors of the estate of C. Kinnard, deceased (appellant); suit for disability benefits under Workmen's Compensation Act and dependency benefits; affirmed.

Cass County: Willard W. Kissinger vs. Clay County School District 49 (appellant); suit to recover an alleged excessive tax levy. Dismissed for failure to file timely appeal.

Official Canvass Gets Underway

While the official count of Tuesday's special election votes could not change the final outcome, the canvassing board has met to start its counting.

The board, consisting of one Democrat and one Republican plus Election Commissioner Harold Gillill, will complete its count of the vote on Friday, July 6. A separate counting board will have completed the tabulation of some 850 absentee and disabled voters by the day before.

Federal Court suits against five other farmers for wheat penalty claims are still pending, the government attorney said. Motions for summary judgments have been made by the government.

The payments, he said, came from Aubrey A. Barr of York, Amil Rears of Humboldt, and Ed Cook of Juniper.

Cook paid $1,834.56 for 1,638 bushels, Rears paid $313.60 for 290 bushels, and Barr paid $417.76 for 373 excess bushels, Wallace said.

All were claims growing out of 1954 crops.

For several months the initiative and propaganda advantage which goes with it has been in the hands of the Russians.

One outstanding example is that the Russians took the lead in proposing the current visit of Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, to the Soviet Union. Since this will lead to a reciprocal invitation to a Soviet officer to visit the United States, the United States might have gotten credit without any loss to its own interests, for proposing this exchange first. Under the new policy such initiatives may now be taken by the American government.

Endorsed

President press secretary James C. Hagerty announced that Eisenhower has endorsed a recommendation of the National Security Council on the subject. This called for the United States to try anew to set the exchange of information and ideas into motion, as proposed by Western nations at Geneva.

Hagerty summoned reporters to his office late Friday to read the announcement, which concluded with this sentence:

"Although this program was unacceptable to the Soviet government at that time (October 1955), the President believes such a program, if carried out in good faith and with true reciprocity, may now contribute to the better understanding of the peoples of the world that must be the foundation of peace."

Censorship

The 17-point proposal promulgated by the Allied Powers called for progressive elimination of censorship, the opening of information centers in countries where they do not now exist, and exchanges of books, newspapers, films and exhibitions.

Hagerty said he did not know whether the announcement indicated that this country has reason to believe Russia may now be more receptive.

Nor would he say whether any particular event or Soviet gesture had prompted the announcement.

Magazine Picture Is 'Prejudicial' ... State High Court

The admission of magazine pictures as evidence in a Burt County land condemnation suit constituted "prejudicial error," the State Supreme Court held Friday.

The case was remanded back to the original court for re-trial.

The original action was brought by Virgil and Lauren Lane against the Burt County Public Power District, which had sought easement and right-of-way on the border of land owned by the Lanes for a power transmission line.

The Lanes were awarded $1 as damages by appraisers, and the Lanes appealed. A jury awarded them $3,800.

Dead Cattle

During the course of the trial in 1952, the attorneys for the Lanes introduced as evidence a two-page pictorial spread from a magazine which showed a number of cattle sprawled dead along a fence line.

The caption explained that the cattle were electrocuted near San Antonio, Tex., when a power line snapped and fell on a pasture fence. The caption said several cattle were lost.

The Supreme Court said the admission of the exhibit was a "flagrantly prejudicial error which requires reversal of the judgment rendered on the verdict and remand of the cause for new trial only."

Other Supreme Court decisions Friday:

Lancaster County: Grace M. Hauff vs. Katherine Kimball, execatrix of the estate of A. C. Kimball, deceased (appellant) suit for disability benefits under Workmen's Compensation Act and dependency benefits affirmed.

Clay County: Willard W. Kissinger vs. Clay County School District, 49 (appellant) suit to recover an allegedly excessive tax levied by the school district; affirmed.

Washington County: John Schroeder et al (appellants) vs. Homestead Corporation et al (appellees); Willard W. Kissinger, defendant; affirmed; remanded.

Appeal from state railway commission decision: Harold Johnson vs. Ray Peake, doing business as R. B. (Dick) Wilson Inc. of Nebraska et al (appellants); affirmed.

Nebraska City Woman Up With Birds To Reach Class

By MARGARET DVORAK
Star Staff Writer

Not many eager scholars were up in time to see a beautiful rainbow one morning last week at about 6 a.m. Mrs. Tony Gebert of Nebraska City was one of those few.

Mrs. Gebert rises promptly at 4:45 every morning, Monday through Friday. She has a 7 a.m. summer school class at the University of Nebraska. In order to get to class on time, she says she must get her car on the road by 5:30. It is 55 miles from Nebraska City to Lincoln.

Mrs. Gebert enjoys the drive. She says the sky at that early hour is beautiful and is still pleasantly cool. And there are added little features like rainbows in the west.

She and her husband have a "breakfast system." She makes coffee the night before and puts it in a thermos. Setting the timer on her electric oven keeps the rolls warm for her husband, who goes to work in Nebraska City at 7:30. "Although sometimes he gets up with me," Mrs. Gebert says proudly.

Mrs. Gebert, who has a bachelor of science degree in home economics and has done graduate work at the University of Chicago, is taking a "refresher" education course this summer.

She plans to teach in Nebraska City this fall, although in recent years she has done social work. After her early class, she does practice teaching until noon at University High School.

Mrs. Gebert is enthusiastic about her school work and seems to take the rigorous morning schedule right in stride. And she sets a good example for other, less disciplined, students — she's never been tardy yet!

Back To His Farm

President Eisenhower was slated to say farewell to his quarters at Walter Reed Hospital and to continue recuperating from a major operation in the peace and serenity of his Gettysburg farm. The thoughts of his people will turn in his direction.

It will be the hope and the wish of all the American people that full, complete recovery is his. The last year has been rough physically on the President. First it was a heart attack in Colorado near the close of his summer vacation on the fringes of the Rockies—frequently among the towering peaks themselves. Then followed weeks of convalescence until it appeared that the President had regained his health fully, only to experience an abdominal attack calling for major surgery.

As against the President's need for complete relaxation and freedom from the mounting controversies in Washington as the congressional session enters the home stretch, there is the likelihood he will be called upon more and more to intervene in legislative battles. There is no retreat from stern duty in the office of President. But in these next few weeks the President should be spared as much as possible. It will be a relief, no doubt, for him to leave the hospital for the solitude of his farm.

A Sixth Condition

Walter D. Cocking, editor of the publication, The School Executive, discussed school boards here at week's end. He had an especially attentive audience for he spoke before school board members assembled at the University of Nebraska for an education workshop.

Cocking enumerated five "should-do's." He said board members should really want good instruction for their children. They should select superintendents demonstrably superior in preparation and educational leadership. He recommended more careful screening of teachers, advised closer relations between school boards and citizens generally and his fifth admonishment charged boards with providing the facilities and environment where best teaching can thrive.

No one will take issue with such sound advice. It is to bring it into practical and successful operation that is the problem.

Perhaps an approach lies in a general redefinition of board membership, the impression held by many board members and a great number of citizens that election to the school board is more of a community honor than an assignment to work, that it is first a pleasant and dignified way of serving a community, reflecting station rather than specific qualification.

Truly standing at the helm of a community's educational service is a high order of public function, involving a substantial portion of the public spending and responsible, in an almost uncomfortable measure, for the futures, for better or worse, of an unending stream of youth.

Men who are honored with the captain's gold braid can find the task of running the ship well truly a hard and exacting duty, less of a pleasant honor than heavy responsibility.

Not Enough To Go Around

The State Game Commission has advised Nebraska sportsmen that currently the fishing in Nebraska is ranging from poor to fair. An occasional wall-eye is yielding to the hook. The always elusive channel catfish now are packing their own lunches, or off to a convention somewhere. The bullheads are treating man's best varieties of bait whimsically. Only the co-operative and socially maladjusted carp are biting as usual. A man can get a string of them if his wife will let him in the house with them.

This is not good news and to the fishing-minded Nebraskan it is no recommendation of this glorious new age of plenty.

The commission included a significant remark in its report. It referred to heavy fishing pressure, certainly a contributing factor to declining fishing.

Nebraska has greatly increased its fishing waters the past 25 years. And it has greatly increased its interest in fishing. But the state with its overly modest license fees and over-conservative game and fish department budgets has not kept up with the trend of the times. There is a question of whether it has not been pennywise and pound-foolish.

Recreation is big business in modern America. Where fishing facilities exist, it is incumbent to give them maximum development. It is a service to the rapidly increasing ranks of fishermen. It is also smart business. Figures are not readily available on Nebraska money spent on fishing in the waters of nearby states. But the very existence of a flourishing recreation business in those states mutely tells that Nebraska is making a substantial contribution to it.

It would be better to reflect that money into Nebraska insofar as possible. That calls for a general reappraisal of Nebraska recreation policy and a considerable break with the past. Such an adventure promises a payoff in resources development.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE,

A bow in the direction of Mr. W. T. Davis for his contribution to discussion of the cost of good government. "We can't reduce the cost of good government to a common denominator of dollars," he writes. "And it does not come entirely by the grace of God. Nor by wishful thinking." How true! Nowhere could it be said more appropriately that if wishes were horses, beggars would ride. Such would be the case in the dreams of the average American when it came to good government.

Winston Churchill Mr. Davis adds, "correctly assessed this cost (of good, acceptable government) when he first appeared before Parliament as head of the British government: blood, sweat, toil and tears, whether at the English Channel or Valley Forge. Abraham Lincoln said little of money when he stood at Gettysburg and over the heads of his audience saw a nation bleeding and wringing its hands for a

Not A Bad Idea

Secretary of Commerce Weeks stirred up a reaction when he proposed that Congress appropriate $9 or $10 million for a survey of America's export business mainly in view of informing American people of its size and significance. Segments of Congress were suddenly reminded that economy is the watchword and took a dim view of such fact finding.

The proposal is entitled to more endorsements than it has thus far received. The United States as a private business does a $25 billion overseas volume a year and contributes to the earnings of far more business, states and individuals than is generally realized.

More precise general knowledge of this sizeable factor in our domestic economy would lead to a better informed public and that would lead to a more realistic judgment of the Congress itself in its presently too often political approach to foreign trade.

Editorial Of The Day

Communist Convulsions

(From The New York Times)

The ideological explosion precipitated by the attempt of the present Soviet dictators to shift all the blame for the horrors of Communist rule to the dead Stalin continues to reverberate throughout the Communist world. Duped Communist followers have been shocked into the state of "critical malcontent" which could be the first step toward independent thinking. But it must also be noted that Communist leaders everywhere are attempting to work out new formulas which could give new impetus to the Communist conspiracy.

In so far as such pronouncements tend to dethrone the Kremlin as the center of Communist ideology, and therewith of Communist power, they may be welcomed. But it would be dangerous to overlook the new traps in the new formulas. Under the new pattern the various "foreign" Communist parties proclaim themselves to be "independent and autonomous," dedicated to national interests and maintaining only "bilateral" relations with the Russian Communists on an "equal" basis. This is designed to enable them not only to shed the odium of being Moscow's agents but also to enlist nationalism and patriotism in their cause and to form with Socialist parties the "united front" ordered by Moscow to capture Parliaments and Governments.

Relocation Upheld By Court

In the State Supreme Court, northeast Nebrascans battling to block the relocation of Highway 35 between Wayne and Wakefield lost a round Friday.

The high court upheld the Lancaster District Court in dismissing a suit brought by the northeast group.

Without ruling on the merits of the suit, the Supreme Court held that the action failed to name as defendants all parties which should have been defendant and as such should be dismissed.

Defendants Named

Defendants named in the action were, Gov. Victor Anderson, State Engineer L. N. Ress, and Attorney General Clarence S. Beck.

Additional parties which should have been named include the state auditor, the state treasurer, and 16 contractors with whom road construction contracts have been signed on the basis of the challenged legislation.

The action was brought originally by Merle Haynes, mayor of South Sioux City; John D. Forsyth of Niobrara, Knox County supervisor; Doyle Hanson, Dixon County supervisor; John Kinney of Wakefield; Joseph Beckenhauer of Dixon County; the City of Wakefield, and the Northeast Nebraska Rural Public Power District.

Challenge Law

Their suit challenged the constitutionality of a law LB 187, passed by the last Legislature, which set out what shall constitute the state highway system and which called for the Highway 35 relocation. The Lancaster District Court upheld the law's constitutionality.

In appealing to the Supreme Court, the plaintiffs listed six assignments of error. These were not ruled upon by the Supreme Court.

The relocation of Highway 35 long has been argued—before the State Highway Advisory Commission, the Legislature and the courts.

Construction work on the relocation is under way.

Chotiner Offers Data In Probe Bender Calls 'Lousy'

WASHINGTON — Murray M. Chotiner, Vice President Nixon's 1952 campaign manager, surrendered documentary evidence Friday in a Senate investigation of his law practice—an inquiry which Sen. Bender (R-Ohio) called "pretty lousy."

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee which had subpoenaed the documents, declined to give any details about Chotiner's testimony at a closed-door session, except to say that Chotiner had "co-operated."

The subcommittee is investigating Chotiner's relations with clients who have had business with the government since the Eisenhower administration took office.

"I think it's pretty lousy," he said.

After the hearing, from which the newsmen were excluded, Chotiner told reporters, "I don't think it's a smear on the administration because nothing improper was done."

In Progress

Chotiner sat in on a news conference at which McClellan said the hearing had been part of "a preliminary investigation" still in progress. The chairman said it had not yet been decided whether the subcommittee would order public hearings to explore Chotiner's law practice further—that this would depend to a large degree on what a study of the documents subpoenaed from Chotiner might show.

"Mr. Chotiner has co-operated with the committee and has given the committee all the information the committee requested," McClellan said, "save and except for one matter where we are waiting for the client-attorney relationship to be waived."

This meant, they said, that Chotiner is awaiting permission from this client to disclose confidential matters between them. Such disclosures without permission are forbidden by a lawyers' code of ethics.

McClellan said the subcommittee did not ask Chotiner to violate this relationship, and that otherwise Chotiner "complied with every request."

Chotiner said he had obtained waivers from the other clients in which this issue was involved, and had surrendered some subpoenaed documents with their permission.

Lutherans Conclude Synod Meet

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod made quick work of its final resolutions Friday and closed its 43rd triennial convention on June 20. The meeting began June 20.

Delegates chose San Francisco as the site of the 1959 synodical convention and awarded the 1962 assembly to Cleveland, O.

Among the last resolutions adopted were those pledging synod members to work for elimination of racial discrimination, continuing the policy of denying women's suffrage in church meetings, and reaffirming the practice of refusing communion to members of "anti-Christian" associations.

The conference gave a priority rating to Concordia Teachers College, Seward, Neb., for a $335,000 gymnasium from church funds.

Nebraskans Selected

Two boards and a selections committee, which elects the nominating committee for the next convention, were chosen Friday.

Among those elected to the Board of Appeals was Henry Schepman, Falls City, Neb.

The Selections Committee includes Herman Eggert, Fremont, Neb.

The racial segregation resolution called on the synod institutions, offices and agencies to disregard race or color in entrance requirements and employment policies.

"Since Christians are constrained to do justice and love mercy," the resolution said, "we acknowledge our responsibility as a church to provide guidance for our members to work in the capacity of Christian citizens for the elimination of discrimination wherever it may exist, in community, city, state, nation and world."

Time-Tested Procedure

In denying women members the right to vote in church meetings, the convention acknowledged it did not find women's suffrage forbidden in "express words of the scripture."

However, the statement adopted noted that congregations which administered their affairs "through the male voters' meetings are following a scripture-sanctioned and time-tested procedure."

One pastor delegate recalled this Biblical admonition: "Let your women keep silence in the churches for it is not permitted for them to speak."

In denying the "privilege of communion to anti-Christian associations," the synod noted that "Holy Communion expresses an exclusive spiritual relationship of the communicants to his Lord and to his brethren."

The resolution made allowance for "exceptional" cases, where individuals still outwardly holding membership in the lodge or association have renounced the group's "anti-Christian teaching."

The resolution named no organizations specifically.

The synod encouraged its stewardship department to seek to enlistment form a private agency to assist congregations in extra-budgetary fund-raising projects. Specialists from the church's constituency are to help churches plan and direct fund campaigns on a fee-basis.

THE STAR IN SUBURBIA

After the weekly visit with our friends in the Park Manor neighborhood, we certainly could find no signs of end-of-the-month doldrums. Quite the contrary, for the coming week brings promise of a variety of activity including news, a steak fry, vacations, newcomers, houseguests, and a new member of the talcum powder set.

The backyard steak fry we mentioned will be given on Saturday evening at the home of Lt. and Mrs. Robert Morrison. The guests will include, Col. and Mrs. Howard Johns and their two daughters, Mary Anne and Jane, and Capt. and Mrs. Herbert Kennedy and their daughters, Rosalie and Sandra.

Following the steak fry, the families will attend their children's Bible class exercises, then back to the home of Lt. and Mrs. Morrison for a watermelon feed.

Speaking of Lt. and Mrs. Morrison and the children, Sharon and Max, reminds us that last week end, they were the guests of Lt. Morrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morrison at Dodge City, Kan.

Special happenings for the Fourth of July includes a house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baker. Mrs. Baker's sister, Mrs. Vernon Vaughn Van Allen of San Gabriel, Calif., will be arriving on Saturday morning, June 30. Mrs. Van Allen will remain in Lincoln for ten days and during her stay there will be several informal courtesies in her honor.

And, while we are on the subject of house guests, we learned that Mr. and Mrs. Boyd MacDougall had as their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Leirager of New York City, N.Y. Mr. Leirager, who is a Delta Sigma Tau fraternity brother of Mr. MacDougall, and Mrs. Leirager spent a week in Lincoln and returned to their home in New York on Friday morning.

After we had checked our list of vacationers in Park Manor, we found that on Tuesday, July 3, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Richardson and their two daughters, Connie and Lorna Lee, will be leaving for a week's visit in Elkhorn, Ill. There, they will be the guests of Mrs. Richardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall, and Mr. Richardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson. They will be returning to Lincoln on Sunday evening, July 8.

Our newest member of the crew set is young Miss Amy Jo Frederick who was born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Frederick on Tuesday, June 26 at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Young Miss Frederick has two older sisters, Laura Marie, and Paula Jean who are entertaining their parental grand-

Town Talk

THINK we shall begin the day's work with news of a bride-elect — Miss Ann Jouvenat — Miss Jouvenat, as you know, has chosen Wednesday, Aug. 1, as the date of her marriage to Thomas Webster, Tucson, Ariz. Miss Jouvenat, as you also doubtless know, has just returned from El Cajon, Calif., where she has been teaching, and will have but a few days of idling before parties in her honor will begin.

The first of the courtesies is the mother-daughter luncheon for which Mrs. Walter Wilson will be hostess at her home on Friday, July 6. Following the luncheon Miss Jouvenat will be presented with a miscellaneous shower.

AND when Mrs. Alfred DuTeau and Mrs. W. Iri Stebbins are breakfast hostesses at the Lincoln Country Club on Saturday, July 14, the party will honor Miss Jouvenat. The guest list will include mothers and daughters — and for the bride-elect — a kitchen shower.

NON-bridal news of interest this morning centers around the family of Mr. and Mrs. E. Phillip Watkins — in town are Mr. and Mrs. Watkins' sons-in-laws and daughters. Mr. and Mrs. William Spangler, their

Mrs. Robert Kahn, the matron of honor, will wear a ballerina-length frock of pastel blue taffeta, and the bridesmaid, Miss Doris Mach will wear a frock styled identically to that of the matron of honor but in the pale yellow tone. Each will carry a colonial bouquet of frock-toned carnations, and Janet Kahn will be the bride's flower girl.

Richard Johnson, Remsen, Ia., will serve as best man and the guests will be seated by David Hatz, Remsen, Ia., brother of the bridegroom, and Robert J. Kahn.

For her wedding, the bride has chosen a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. Natural lace scallops outline the shoulder-wide yoke of tulle which is fashioned with a tiny mandarin collar of lace, and the long fitted sleeves are wrist-tipped. Wide panels of lace detail the front and back of the extremely bouffant floor-length skirt of tulle and a tiara of seed pearls will hold in place her waist-length veil of illusion. The bride will carry a white prayer book marked with red roses.

Following a wedding reception to be held in the church parlors, the couple will leave for the west coast where they will make their home at 7028 Sepulveda Blvd., Van Nuys, Calif.

The bride attended the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Towne Club, and Mr. Hatz is a graduate of Notre Dame University, South Bend, Ind.

Fan arrangements of white blossoms, touched with blue, and cathedral candles in seven-branched candelabra formed the chancel decor in the chapel at the Westminster Presbyterian Church where the wedding of Miss Jo Jen Loder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Elliott Loder, and Francis Havens Tuban, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark R. Tuban, Mountain View, Calif., took place on Friday afternoon, June 29. Dr. R. V. Gilber, minister of the First Presbyterian Church in Fremont, solemnized the 4:30 o'clock ceremony, and Miss Karen Beghtol, who played the wedding music also accompanied the vocal soloist, Mrs. William Swoboda, Hebron.

The bridegroom, Mr. John C. Fisher, Mountain View, Calif., the matron of honor, and Mrs. Robert Kasmarek, Janesville, Wis., the bridesmatron, were fashioned of pastel blue cotton lace and tone-matching chiffon. The elongated bodices of lace extended in points into the bouffant skirts of chiffon, and the length of the brief sleeves was replaced with lace mitts in pastel blue. Their costumes were completed with Juliet caps of the blue cotton lace and each carried a white fan ornamented with blue-tinted carnation fleur-de-lis and ivy. Mrs. Norman Lock lighted the candles.

Don Wagner will serve his brother as the best man and the corps of ushers will be William Lindly of Wahoo, Nick Aldrich, Jerry Robinson and Robert Wagner.

John C. Fisher, Mountain View, Calif., served Mr. Tuban as best man, and seating the guests were Richard K. Decker, Clarendon Hills, Ill., and Harold P. Turner.

The members of the Haines Branch Extension Club held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Emily Hudson. Following a brief business meeting the eight members spent the afternoon informally, and a dessert luncheon was served by the hostess.

M. Sgt. E. G. Sasse will serve Mr. Arute as best man, and the ushers will include S. Sgt. Whit Oder and A. C. Paul Kalous.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at Hotel Cornhusker.

Mr. Arute and his bride will reside in New Britain, Conn.

Pink gladioli and white carnations in white pedestal baskets appointed the chancel of the Frieden's Lutheran Church on Friday evening, June 29, for the wedding of Miss Bonnie Joyce Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris, and Richard L. Dormer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dormer. The 8 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. H. M. Goede and Miss Helen Moessner who played the wedding music also accompanied the vocal soloist, Miss Patricia May.

Mrs. George Sharpnack, the matron of honor, wore a ballerina-length frock of lavender tulle over taffeta. The bridesmaids, Miss Betty Morris, sister of the bride, Miss Barbara Wallick, Miss Bonnie Masters and Miss Joanne Stolley wore identically styled frocks to that of the matron of honor but in tones of pink and blue. John Turner was the junior usher.

The bridal gown of Chantilly lace and tulle was designed with a low-waisted, smoothly sculptured bodice of lace in which the shoulder-wide portrait neckline slipped into long sleeves. A Juliet cap of lace, crested with seed pearls, held to the head her tiered, waist-length veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Following the reception in the church parlors, Mr. Tuban and his bride left for a honeymoon trip to Banff and Lake Louise, B.C., and the Pacific Northwest. They will reside at 534 Anza St., Mountain View.

The bride was graduated from Monticello College for Women, Alton, Ill., and from the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Tuban was graduated from Fort Union Military School, and from Washington and Lee University.

No wedding date is named.

7-Foot High Jump Ceiling Shattered

Soos Hinder Chiefs' 1st Half Hopes

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

The Lincoln Chiefs passed up an opportunity to strengthen their chances in the first-half Western League by failing to the lowly Sioux City Soos, 3-2, in the seven-inning opener of a doubleheader at Sherman Field Friday night.

But they didn't lose ground to Topeka because the Des Moines Bruins kayoed the Hawks, 5-4, in a first-half makeup tilt at Topeka.

The Chiefs still lead Topeka by seven percentage points in the first half.

The second game at Sherman Field came to an abrupt halt at the close of the fourth inning when a high-wind and heavy-rain storm rolled in from the west. Lincoln had tied it up 1-1 in its half of the fourth.

Another twin bill is on tap Saturday, but it will be a split day-night affair. The afternoon game will start at 2:30 p.m. — it will be Ladies Day, with the gals admitted for a quarter service charge — and the night contest is slated for 8 p.m.

By virtue of Western League President O. M. Hobbs' directive — which is contrary to baseball law — the afternoon game will count in the first half, just as the first game Friday night was a first-half makeup.

Rule 4.13 (g) in the official rule book states that the rescheduled game of a doubleheader will be the second, but Hobbs has ruled otherwise.

So the Chiefs were handed a first-half loss by the Soos in Friday's seven-inning curtain raiser.

Ted Thiem of the Soos tossed a six-hitter at the Chiefs in posting his fifth win of the year against nine losses.

Don Williams, in relief of Dom Rosello who lasted only two frames, drew the loss — and it was his wild pitch that allowed the winning run to score in the fifth inning.

After the Soos tallied twice in the second on a single, a walk, a sacrifice and Thiem's single off Rosello, Manager Larry Shepard called on Williams to take over at the start of the third.

Then the Chiefs tied it up in the home half of the third.

Al Stringer walked, Kenny Toothman singled — his 19th straight game to hit safely — and they both moved to third when Dick Stuart grounded out.

Bill Jackson drew a walk but was forced by Reggie Grenard, and on the play, Stringer and Toothman both scored when the relay on the double play attempt got away from Soo First-Sacker Ken Landenberger.

A bunt single by Thiem, a walk and an error loaded the sacks in the Sioux City fifth and set the stage for the winning run. With two out, Williams bounced a pitch in front of the plate and the ball got away from Catcher Joe Zavattaro, allowing Thiem to score.

In the second game, Bobby Crain's double and Landenberger's single off Bennie Daniels put the Soos in front, 1-0, in the first.

Two walks and a base rap by Marcus Cobos evened it up in the

Dumas Sets Record In L. A. Olympic Trials

... Davis, O'Brien Sparkle

By BOB MYERS

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Charlie Dumas of Compton Calif., broke the 7-foot barrier in the high jump Friday night with a leap of 7-feet 1/4 inch.

The 19-year-old freshman from Compton College cleared the coveted mark on his second try.

but had to settle for a time of 10.3 with a comparatively easy win.

Almost forgotten at this point was another world equaling effort, a throw of 60 feet 10 inches by the world record holder, Parry O'Brien of the Air Force. O'Brien has a distance of 61.4 awaiting recognition, however.

The 400-meter hurdle race was a distinct surprise.

Davis' time was at first announced as 49.6. An official recheck of the watches brought the new mark down to 49.5.

Young Eddie Southern, a freshman at the University of Texas, with 49.7, also broke the world mark, and the third finisher, Josh Culbreath of the U.S. Marine Corps, equalled the mark with 50.4.

Deaf-Mute Wins World Title

D'Agata Wins When Cohen Quits In 6th

By STAN SWINTON
ROME — Deaf-mute Mario D'Agata of Italy won the European Boxing Union's version of the world bantamweight title Friday night when the referee announced that Robert Cohen of France had retired after the sixth round.

Cohen disputed violently the referee's action in his dressing room immediately after the bout. "It was dishonest," claimed Cohen. "It was the referee who did it against my will. I wanted to continue."

The 30-year-old Italian had battered Cohen to the canvas for a nine-count just before the sixth round ended. Teddy Waltham secretary of the British Boxing Board of Control who was the referee and sole judge went to Cohen's corner as the round ended. From ringside it appeared Cohen gave his assent to withdrawing but the boxer said later in his dressing room:

"He asked me 'Should I stop the fight?' I said no, but in the confusion apparently I was misunderstood."

Waltham said after the fight: "Cohen gave his assent clearly and agreed to withdraw."

Almost immediately the promoters announced there would be a rematch at an undetermined date.

A partisan crowd of 35,000 rushed from the Olympic Stadium seats into the arena and carried D'Agata away on their shoulders.

It was Cohen's first fight since December 10, 1955 when he was stopped by featherweight Cherif Hamis of France. In the interim he had suffered a broken jaw in a January auto accident.

Cohen's blows frequently were wild. D'Agata easily was superior in the in-fighting. D'Agata weighed 117½ Cohen 116½.

Declared Title Vacant

Cohen was recognized in most countries as bantam (118 pounds) champ after he won a decision over Chamern Songkitrat in Bangkok Sept. 19 1954. The National Boxing Assn. however declared the title vacated after it claimed Cohen refused to go through with an agreement to box Raul Nacias of Mexico.

D'Agata one of seven children in an impoverished mountain family from Arezzo, was gravely wounded in February 1955 by 23 shotgun wounds from his hot-tempered partner in a laundry business. He had signed to box Macias for the NBA title before he was injured but the match never came off.

Maxwell, Kaline Power Tiger Win

KANSAS CITY — Back-to-back home runs by Charlie Maxwell and Al Kaline blasted an incipient pitchers' duel and sent Detroit sailing into a 5-0 win over Kansas City Friday night behind the five-hit pitching of southpaw Bill Hoef.

Hoef and Tom Lasorda, another lefty, were matching slants on an even basis—each had given up just one hit through the first five frames—when the Tiger muscle men unloaded in the sixth. Maxwell making a big night of it with 2-for-4, slammed another homer in the ninth scoring Jim Brideweser ahead of him.

Lasorda survived the two-run sixth without further damage although Jack Phillips got a double by dropping a pop fly among John Groth, Harry Simpson and Cleo Boyer. But the Tigers tallied again in the seventh on a single by Hoef, an infield out and another single by Maxwell. Lasorda was jerked for little Bobby Shantz, the A's veteran but often ailing lefthander, who managed to stop the scoring in that frame.

Shantz was lifted for a pinch hitter and Tom Gorman, finishing the game, dished up the home run pitch to Maxwell after Brideweser had singled.

Yankee Power Lacking But Nats Lose

NEW YORK — The New York Yankees made the most of a paltry five hits Friday night, and backed by the superb pitching of Bob Grim, defeated the Washington Senators 3-1. Grim was forced to retire in the eighth after giving up only two hits. Don Larson and Rip Coleman finished.

Three of the Yanks' hits, in fact,

did not even figure in the scoring.

They tallied twice in the first on one hit and scored their other run in the third without benefit of a hit.

The Senators, for their part, were virtually helpless against

Grim. The big righthander's only lapse was in the second, when he was tapped for a home run by catcher Clint Courtney.

The one big hit for Casey Stengel's operatives was Hank Bauer's first-inning double which bounced into the right-field stands with the bases loaded, sending Joe Collins and Mickey Mantle clattering across the plate.

Senator pitcher Pedro Ramos

had issued passes to Collins, Mantle and Norm Siebern, filling the bases almost before he could cry:

"Caramba."

Ramos' wildness also cost him

the third Yanks' run. He walked

Mantle and Yogi Berra hit a grounder to Pete Runnels at second base. Runnels threw the ball away and Mantle went around to third. Siebern forced Berra and Mantle scored on the play.

A physician's report on Grim said that he had a slight strain of a tendon on the right elbow. It is not considered serious, but he probably will miss his next turn against the Boston Red Sox on July 4.

Cubs Cool Braves By 8-4

Banks Hits 17th Homer To Give Haney 3rd Loss

CHICAGO (AP) — The hot Milwaukee Braves were cooled off by the lowly Chicago Cubs 8-4 Friday as three unearned runs in the fourth and homers by Ernie Banks and Pete Whisenant backed Bob Rush to his seventh victory.

Rush scattered nine hits, including a triple and a homer by Johnny Logan, to hand the Braves their third defeat in 14 games under new Manager Fred Haney. The loser was Lew Burdette, who lasted four innings before yielding to a pinch hitter. Now holding a 7-4 record, Burdette was succeeded by Bob Trowbridge and Lou Slaughter. The Braves trio yielded eight hits.

Although the Braves never were ahead, thanks to Banks' 17th homer after Gene Baker singled in the Cub first, Burdette saw a 2-2 tie ruined in the fourth on a throwing error by second sacker Danny O'Connell which opened the gate for four Bruin runs.

After Walt Moryn's single in the fourth with one out, O'Connell threw wildly to second trying for a force on Monte Irvin's grounder, Moryn taking third and Irvin second.

Jack Dittmer, filling in at third for Eddie Mathews who suffered a neck crick in the third, missed in a plate try for Moryn on Whisenant's grounder. Singles by Hobie Landrith and Rush shoved across two more tallies.

The Braves scored once in the second on Bob Thomson's walk, the only one off Rush, and Logan's triple and made it 2-2 in the fourth on Hank Aaron's scratch single, a wild pitch and Adcock's single.

Logan's leadoff homer, his No.

Wheat Board Gives OK To Sale Of State Grain To Italy, Greece

By RICHARD FELLMAN

Star Staff Writer

The Nebraska Wheat Commission Friday gave the go ahead to a project aimed at selling Nebraska wheat to importers in Italy and Greece through the Foreign Agriculture Service (FAS) office of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Under the proposed plans, a delegation from the wheat and milling business in both Greece and Italy will visit this country sometime next fall, spending most of their time in Nebraska. While they are here the Wheat Commission will work on a method to sell Nebraska wheat to importers in the two countries.

Also discussed by the Commission at their two-day meeting was a plan to promote consumer education relating to wheat food products through schools, hotels and home extension agencies. Although no money has as yet been committed to this program, a plan in co-operation with the Wheat Flour Institute is being considered.

Wheat For Cattle
Another project getting under way, according to Leslie F. Sheffield, chief of the Commission, is a study on the feeding of wheat to beef cattle. It is being worked on by the University of Nebraska North Platte Experiment Station.

Arrangements were also completed Friday to advertise Nebraska wheat in milling and baking trade journals, in conjunction with the Nebraska Grain Improvement Association.

Friday the Commission approved a project involving a study of cut worms, a serious insect pest, especially in the Panhandle wheat growing counties of Nebraska. The project will cost $8,500 a year and is set up for five years. It is to be conducted by the University's Experiment Station.

Arrangements were also completed Friday to advertise Nebraska wheat in milling and baking trade journals, in conjunction with the Nebraska Grain Improvement Association.

Sheffield stressed that the plan to bring representatives from Italy and Greece to Nebraska included no guarantee that these nations would purchase domestic wheat.

The wheat that the Commission hopes to sell is the hard red wheat produced in most of Nebraska. This wheat, Sheffield said, could be mixed with durum wheat and used in spaghetti and macaroni.

Members of the Wheat Commission present at the meeting included Carson R. Smith, of Ogallala, chairman; Burton Cunningham, of Gurley; Telfort Ewing, Gering; and Willard Waldo, DeWitt. Also attending was E. F. Frolik, associate director of the Experiment Stations for the University of Nebraska, an ex officio member attending in place of W. V. Lambert, dean of the College of Agriculture.

Fire Trucks Kill 10 Jap Children

TOKYO (INS) — Ten Japanese children were killed when hit by speeding fire engines answering alarms in two separate parts of Japan.

Six youngsters died and 12 others were injured when run over by a fire engine at Kushiro on Japan's northern island of Hokkaido. All were in a group of children watching fire trucks racing to the scene of a fire.

At Shimodate, just north of Tokyo, a fire engine spun out of control and killed four children standing before a candy shop.

Hearings On Site For Animal Disease Lab End Saturday

Hearings were to end Saturday at St. Louis for sites under consideration for a proposed 19-million-dollar government animal disease laboratory for which Lincoln is bidding.

Sites will be narrowed from 63 to 10 for an inspection trip next week by a committee named by the Department of Agriculture to select the site.

Don Collins of Kit Carson, Colo., committee chairman and president of the American National Cattlemen's Association, and his committee expect to leave St. Louis Sunday for a personal inspection of the most satisfactory sites.

Lincoln Suggested

Dean W. V. Lambert of the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture has suggested several sites in the Lincoln area for the laboratory. One particularly recommended is northeast of Lincoln adjacent to the experiment station.

Dean Lambert told the committee that construction costs in Lincoln are 10 per cent below the national average and that the city could easily take care of housing needed for the laboratory personnel.

The laboratory, replacing obsolete facilities at Washington, D.C.:

2 Additional Counties Ask 'Bank' Grazing

Two additional counties received recommendations from the governor's office Friday to allow the counties' farmers to graze livestock on soil bank land because of feed shortages.

The newest recommendations, bringing to five the total sent to Secretary of Agriculture Benson, are for Boyd and Knox.

Recommendations were made earlier by Gov. Victor Anderson, on the advice of Ed Hoyt, state director of agriculture, for grazing privileges to Platte, Colfax, and Stanton Counties.

Drought Aid

The new farm bill, including soil bank provisions, permits the secretary of agriculture to make exceptions and permit grazing on soil bank land reserve acreage when drought or other disaster causes a feed shortage emergency.

Hoyt stated Friday his observations of the general area of the counties requesting the grazing privilege showed pasture lands in bad shape. He said the farmers in the area are feeding generally a small number of cattle on oat crops not expected to be harvested.

Lack of rain during the earlier part of the year hurt the pasture in the area, Hoyt said, and it will be some time before it again can become useful.

Lincoln Man Given Reformatory Sentence

Donald Rutt Jr., 25, of 5115 Walker was sentenced Friday to a one-to-three-year indeterminate Reformatory term by the Lancaster District Court on a burglary charge.

Sentence on the burglary charge had been suspended Feb. 8, when Rutt was placed on two years' probation.

Arraigned June 18 for revocation of probation, Rutt had pleaded guilty to parole violation by receiving stolen property.

Arrangements were also completed Friday to advertise Nebraska wheat in milling and baking trade journals, in conjunction with the Nebraska Grain Improvement Association.

$70,000 For 1955

Sheffield reported that receipts for the 1955 wheat crop are almost all in, the total now being slightly more than $70,000. The wheat is taxed at the rate of 1/4 cent per bushel, each farmer paying the assessment from his sale. Of this amount, $20,000 has been allocated to development, utilization, and marketing projects. There remains some $35-40,000 to still be allocated.

Sheffield stressed that the plan to bring representatives from Italy and Greece to Nebraska included no guarantee that these nations would purchase domestic wheat. The wheat that the Commission hopes to sell is the hard red wheat produced in most of Nebraska. This wheat, Sheffield said, could be mixed with durum wheat and used in spaghetti and macaroni.
